

Counselor signup sheet

Waheguru ji ka Khalsa Waheguru ji ki fateh

Become a part of the Sikh Society of Michigan Gurmat camp team 2019! As young Sikh members of Society, you can help shape the next generation.

Please read the following guidelines carefully and sign only if you accept them.

Note: All counselors commit to whole week of camp and cannot quit or back off after submitting this sheet.

We are looking for counselors with desirable Personality and character such as

- Excellent leadership skills
- Patience and fairness
- Respect Sikh Values
- Willingness to teach Sikhi to the next generation
- Enthusiasm
- Respect for authority
- Dependability
- Sincere love and respect of campers

All counselors are expected to accept the following Guidelines.

1. All counselors are expected to exhibit the highest leadership qualities and be able to demonstrate responsibility in performing assigned jobs and activities.
2. All counselors have to be at Gurudwara by 11 am and leave by 8pm.
3. All counselors are responsible to stay with their group throughout the day and perform the duties allotted to them.

4. Counselors should not be busy on cell phones texting or talking to friends or posting pictures on social media.

5. All counselors are expected to portray their best behavior all the time and be good role models for the young campers.

Some examples of poor behavior are:

- Using bad language or talking inappropriate subjects with or around the campers.
- Not being respectful of staff members, parents and other volunteers.

Any of the above behavior will not be tolerated. Two verbal warnings will be given by the camp organizers. Ignoring the verbal warnings will bear consequences.

The Head of the camp has the right to terminate any counselor who ignores verbal warnings and continues with unacceptable behavior.

Accept

I have read the above Guidelines and clearly understand them. I promise to abide by the rules of the camp. I understand that should my performance not meet the camp's standards that I may be dismissed from my services.
